Winner—Br. g., 4, by Montrose—Georgie H.
Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; the next three were driving hard. W C T's win was extremely lucky. With an equal break Damocles surely would have beaten him. W C T was off in front well on his stride, while Damocles was tangled up and almost standing still. Damocles wove his way through and ran a good race. He is many pounds better than W C T. Inspector Hunt performed well. His race was in and his price out of line. Glenmoynes had a rough journey. Zamar II showed a flash of his old speed and seems nearly ready.

Scratched—Hush, 105; Diggs, 105; Covington Ky, 100; Uncas, 105; Trilby, 105; Tin Cup, 100; Loyalta, 100.

1889 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. All ages. Allowances.

Time, 24½, 48½, 1:01½, 1:14½, 1:40½.

Winner—Ch. c., 2, by Forester—Daisy Woodruff.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second driving to the limit. The other two were pulled up. Lieber Karl showed great quality. He was giving away lumps of weight and handled it like a gentleman. Kitley is much too light to ride him. The colt was stopping at the end. Had the boy been able to hold his head up he would have won more easily. David Tenny ran to the notch. He is a good little horse.

Winner—Br. m., 6, by Faustus—Minnie Payne.
Post 30 seconds. Start perfect. Won well in hand; second and third driving. Charm was the best. She merely galloped in behind Algol and May W to the stretch. She passed them like a flash. Algol got a running start. He was galloping at the head of the stretch but quit badly when Charm got to him. The ride on May W was not a finished one. She was taken wide on the turns. It was practically a three horse race.

Winner—Br. g. by Himyar—Rokee.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; the next four were keenly ridden out. Judge Wardell ran an excellent race. He was extremely lucky, though, and got a running start. Presbyterian should have been third. He cut Official off on the far turn, causing the latter to pull up. The chances are that Official was the best. He made up a lot of ground and finished very strong. Loving Cup has had too much of it. Pinar del Rio is a slow beginner and was interfered with often. She is a good filly and prefers a distance of ground.

Scratched—Crystalline, 90; Dictate, 80; Dave Waldo, 90.

Overweights—Empress Josephine, 3 pounds; Loving Cup, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Buchanan—Voline.
Off first break. Start perfect. All were driving to the limit. Meadowthorpe was undoubtedly the best. Sloan clearly outdrove Murphy. The latter's ride was incompetent. He was on the outside, took the colt wide on the first turn and generally rode carelessly and without judgment. Sloan rated Sheppard nicely in front. He just led Meadowthorpe far enough to puzzle Murphy. It was the ride that won. Meadowthorpe is an honest, stanch colt. He was under the whip from the head of the stretch and would have won in a few more strides, purely on his courage. Fervor was outclassed. Murphy claimed a foul. It was not allowed.

Scratched—Carnero, 117; Dunois, 112; Donna Rita, 109.

Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won cleverly; the next five were hard driven. Serena was much the best. She appeared lame in her preliminary. That made the price. Tradition ran a good race under a good ride. He is a fair horse and much underrated. Admetus, with clear sailing, would easily have been second. He might have given the winner a strong argument. He was far out of contention at the start and obliged to take the long route. Watch Bridgeton. His race was good. Charley Christy went all to pieces when the pinch came. Sullross finished strong. Scratched—La Moore, 97; Terranet, 97; Martin K, 93; Dejure, 97; Muskalonge, 108.

Overweights—Tradition, 3 pounds; Helen H Gardner, 2.

Start straggling. Won driving. J A Gray was the best. He was jostled at the start and came like a good horse in the last half. Rubicon was lucky and well placed. He ran a grand race. Klepper showed surprising form for him. Saugus was poorly handled and finished stoutly. Dorian, off poorly, came fast from a pocket in the straight. High Jinks took the long route, looked prominent at the eighth pole but quit in the last sixteenth. He was eased up. He ran a grand race too. Trillette ran poorly. Regulator quit and belongs elsewhere. Hi Daddy wants soft going.

Winner—B. g., 2, by Emperor of Norfolk—Cleopatra.
Start good. Won handily. Rey Salazar was best. He finished strong. Blarneystone has returned to his early form and showed much speed. He favors mud. Antonio finished like a lion right at the end. Rowena quit. She wants a billiard table track. Scotch Plaid is going back. He was overweighted and outclassed. Handpress lost much at the start. Banished quit unaccountably. The track may have been too damp for him.

Scratched—Komurasaki, 111; Attainment, 89; Fleeting Gold, 100; Kilt, 99.

PEDIGREE BLANKS AND FORMS.

Breeders and owners are often at a loss for correct form of pedigree tabulation. DAILY RACING FORM can supply such blank ruled forms for seven generations and on bond paper for 20 cents each or $2 per dozen. The forms are about 15 by 18 inches in size, ruled in black and red, and artistically edged. They are built to frame. The pedigree—seven generations—of any horse will be written in artistic style within the forms for $5. The writing will be that of sign painting and the form sent with a frame of the highest class.

Winner—B. f. by Maxim—Napa.

Start good. Won driving. Napamax was best. He lost at start, had a stormy journey and finished strong and game under good handling. Gibraltar should have won though. He appeared to be winning easily. Martin was caught napping at the sixteenth. The colt lacks game-ness. He is a wonder in the mud. Bliss Rucker showed class and ran a wonderful game race. Hampden showed speed but quit and was eased. Easter Gift showed a fast middle quarter only. Throw the race out. He must have been short. Gala Day is not good in this company. He needs to outclass his field on speed to win.

Scratched—Handpress, 114; Whistling Con, 114.

Overweights—Gala Day, 1 pound.

1904 FIFTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. 6, by Dutch Roller—Lena.

Start good. Won driving. Dutch Skater was best at the distance. He got poor handling. Estaca was too much used first part. Otherwise he would have won. He ran a fine race. He is a wonder in mud. Partridge, under weak handling, finished strong on his own courage. Hugh Penny killed himself in pacemaking. He needs to be waited with, over his distance. He was pulled up in stretch. Candelaria is improving and made up a lot of ground at end.

Scratched—Lake View Palace, 102; Domitor, 93; Old Saugus, 103.

Overweights—Halfling, 11 pounds; Hugh Penny, 1.
